Filming on Campus Guidelines

- Daily fees can be charged at the discretion of University Communications. In most cases, fees are waived if the film serves to enhance the university's reputation.
- Those associated with the filming/photography must comply with accepted standards of behaviour for the academic environment. The functioning of the university staff in the course of their duties must not be impeded by the filming/photography process.
- Consent to film or photograph any faculty member, staff member, student or administrative member must be obtained from that individual prior to filming.
- The university reserves the right to screen and approve all films/photographs with respect to university premises.
- The user is responsible for any damages caused by the filming/photography process to university property, buildings or equipment.
- The user will indemnify and save harmless the university from any and all claims made by any person, firm or corporation arising from conduct of any work by, or through any act of negligence of the user, or any assignee, agent, contractor, servant, employee, invitee or licensee on or in the premises.
- The user agrees use of film/photographs will be restricted to that described to the university as its original intent.
- The user will seek approval from University Communications in advance for any external or internal changes, additions or other alterations to property, buildings, signage or equipment required for filming/photography. The user agrees to return above-mentioned university property to its original state before leaving the filming/photography site.
- Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to be construed by the parties hereto, nor by any third party as creating the relationship of principal and agent, or of partnership, or of joint venture between the parties hereto, and the user agrees not to hold itself out to any third party as such.
